Finnie has an array of college interest including three offers newest NCP Top 40 as a 3-star prospect.

After being part of her third straight NorCal Division I championship team, Finnie is back with the CA Ballaz this summer.

Stay tuned for more updates on Finnie throughout the summer.

There has been steady development over the past two years in the game of Berkeley forward Desire Finnie, who has drawn college interest heading into her senior campaign. NCP recently caught up with the 3-star prospect to get the latest on her recruitment.

The 5-foot-10 Finnie has offers from UNLV, Temple and Eastern Washington. She has a wide array of programs showing interest, including Oregon, Colorado, Pepperdine, San Diego State, UC Santa Barbara USC and Kansas with numerous other West Coast schools in the mix as well. The schools coming at her the hardest are UNLV, Temple and UC Santa Barbara, Finnie said.

"I think I've done pretty good. I still have a few things to work on. My rebounding got better. My shot got better too," Finnie said. "I feel way more comfortable (on the perimeter). Shooting on the perimeter is easier now. I just have to work on my outside game and my dribbling."

While she can play at multiple spots, her best position is at small forward. She plays with a great motor and is a very good rebounder with an improving perimeter skill set. She is ranked No. 13 in the
