The Elite Prospect Games presented by Passthaball and Project Basketball brought out some of the top players in the region to Contra Costa College. We take a look at 5-stars in the 2014 and 2015 classes as well as Stockton St. Mary's sharpshooter Kat Tudor.

Mikayla Cowling 6-foot-1G St. Mary's-Berkeley (2014): Cowling finished with eight points, but displayed her developed perimeter skills on Saturday. The long time Cal commit had a strong baseline attack with the left hand and a pull-up from 17 feet. She added a runner and a catch and finish in one motion late in the game.

Desire Finnie 5-foot-10 F Berkeley (2014): The recent commit for Pacific turned in another good performance with 12 points. A good athlete with a high motor, Finnie runs the floor well for easy buckets and has nice touch from 10-12 feet. Her perimeter skills are coming along as she becomes the third local commitment for head coach Lynne Roberts and the Tigers.

Gabby Green 6-foot-1 St. Mary's-Berkeley (2014): Back in the Bay Area after winning the gold medal with the U19 squad last month, Green had 16 points in a stat stuffing performance. She has a pull-up game at 15-17 feet and made a pair of threes. She is a physical guard who absorbs contact well and can attack from different spots. On Saturday, Green had numerous assists and had good moments on defense. One of the top players in the country, she remains uncommitted.

Kelli Hayes 6-foot-0 W Mitty (2014): Hayes provided much of the offense early for her team and finished with 12 points. Still needing a little more polish as a scorer, Hayes is a creative shot maker and a very good athlete. Her shot has improved over the last year and started falling as the game went on. She is committed to UCLA.

Simone Sheppard 6-foot-0 F Sacramento (2014): Sheppard was able to get scoring chances in multiple ways on Saturday. She had a nice pump fake before putting it on the floor and also had a nice spin move for an and one bucket. Sheppard is an active forward and verbally committed to UNLV over the summer. She will be a good addition for Sac High this year after sitting out last year due to transfer rules.

Kelea Dennis 6-foot-2 Post Piedmont (2015): Dennis has the physical tools and motor to be highly recruited out of the 2015 class. She carves out positions well and is a good rebounder, but struggled to score over length inside. This is a key year for Dennis with a potential high ceiling.

Bri Moore 5-foot-6 G St. Mary's-Stockton (2015): Moore is aggressive with the ball in her hands and is a tough matchup to keep out of the lane. She also knocked down a pair of threes, but can play out of control at times. She was the NorCalPreps.com Division I Player of the Year as a sophomore and ranks No. 2 in the NCP Top 40.

Asha Thomas 5-foot-5 PG Bishop O'Dowd (2015): Thomas tried to shoot her team back into it with six threes on the afternoon in finishing with 19 points. The No. 1 player in the 2015 class is able to create space off the dribble and can dictate pace in the open court. She plays with a good confidence and already has two state titles.

Kat Tudor 5-foot-10 G St. Mary's-Stockton (2016): One of the youngest players in the Leaders game, Tudor showed again you can't leave her open. The sophomore sharpshooter knocked down three 3's with a quick release. There needs to be more development to her game in the coming years, but she possesses a premium skill with big game experience.
