SAIDAH ALLEN, Piedmont, Sr., forward -- The 5-foot-11 Allen was a scoring and rebounding dynamo for a Highlanders squad that reached the California Interscholastic Federation Division IV Northern regional semifinals. Allen, bound for Fresno State, averaged 22.3 points, 19.3 rebounds, four steals and four blocks a game.

BRITTANY BOYD, Berkeley, Sr., guard -- The Yellowjackets' Cal-bound point guard was a constant triple-double threat and averaged 15.7 points, 6.7 steals, 5.2 assists and 6.4 rebounds. She was the Alameda Contra Costa Athletic League most valuable player and her team's leading scorer when Berkeley beat rival Carondelet in the Division I regional final to advance to the state title game.

RAYVEN BROOKS, Dougherty Valley, Sr., guard -- Brooks was a clutch player for the Wildcats, who won the first North Coast Section title in the program's history. The Diablo Foothill Athletic League most valuable player showed great instincts on the court and averaged 15.4 points, 5.8 rebounds and 4.8 assists a game for the league champions.

CHAIRESE CULBERSON, Berkeley, Sr., forward/center -- Culberson saved her best for the postseason, recording a double-double in nearly every playoff game. She averaged 14 points and 15 rebounds in those contests as Berkeley won the NCS and NorCal Division I championships. She has a scholarship to San Diego State.

HANNAH HUFFMAN,

Carondelet, Jr., guard -- With her smooth jump shot and fierce competitiveness, Huffman helped the Cougars reach the NorCal Division I title game. She had a total of 93 points in three regional playoff games and was the East Bay Athletic League co-MVP after helping Carondelet go undefeated in league play for the second straight season. She averaged 16.5 points, 6.6 rebounds, 3.6 assists, 3.5 steals and 1.2 blocks a game this season.

ERICA PAYNE, Carondelet, Sr., forward/center -- Payne, the Cougars' emotional leader who is headed to Stanford, manned the paint for the EBAL champions. She averaged 13.9 points, 8.5 rebounds, 2.8 steals and 2.2 blocks a game as Carondelet reached the NCS and Northern regional Division I title games. Payne was also the EBAL co-most valuable player.
